

General Education Curriculum Reform

Lecture and seminar led by

Dr. Harry Lewis

former Dean of Arts and Sciences, Harvard University author of Excellence Without a Soul

Tuesday March 11th from 10:00 AM to 12:30 PM

LT3 Graduate Law Centre

Bank of America Tower, Central

Sponsored by the MAN Hong Kong International Literary Festival

CUHK School of Law

Po and Helen Chung Foundation

Based on his 30 years of experience and leadership in undergraduate education at Harvard, Dr Harry Lewis will speak about the elements of a good university-wide general education program.

After Lewis' lecture and a Q+A session, the audience of academics from across the universities in HK will break into informal groups to discuss innovations in general education in Hong Kong universities.

Refreshments will be served. The program will end with general reflections by Lewis and others on how to enrich general education for HK students in the context of the 3-3-4 reforms in the run-up to 2012.

The four discussion groups will focus on:

Social Sciences and Law

Business and Economics

Natural, Life Sciences and Engineering

Arts and the Humanities

There is no fee for the program. We request reservations be made in advance. Please RSVP to the HKAC at tel.: 2609-8748 to Ms Pauline Lau, by email: paulinelau@cuhk.edu.hk; or by fax: 2603-5797 by February 29, 2008. For more information, please contact Dr. Glenn Shive, Director of the HKAC, at glennshive@cuhk.edu.hk, or tel.: 2609-8749. All university staff are welcome to participate. More information about Dr. Harry Lewis is at <http://www.eecs.harvard.edu/~lewis>.